

Teachers Invitational Whalewatching Trip

Cape Cod & Boston June 25-27, 2012 Only $129 per person

(double occupancy; one guest welcome)

Open to active full-time teachers of grades
5 through 12, plus one guest/roommate

Experience the trip that put CTA on the educational travel map.

Includes all this:

- 3 ½ hour whalewatch cruise from Provincetown, MA
- Boston Museum of Science
- Naturalist-led salt marsh walk
- Floating Classroom oceanography activity
- New England Aquarium
- Two breakfasts
- Two dinners
- Two nights lodging at the Radisson Cape Cod
- CTA Trip Director throughout
- Charter motorcoach transportation departs from:
  - Allentown, PA (I-78 and Route 222 Park 'n Ride)
  - Bridgewater, NJ (Marriott Bridgewater Commons Mall)
  - Bridgeport, CT (Ferry terminal for easy access from both Long Island and CT)

Why so inexpensive? Simple. After you experience this trip, you'll want to bring your students. We designed the first-ever student whalewatching trip in 1982 and have the most experience creating fantastic whalewatching field trip experiences for you and your students.

Register today at www.CTAFielddtrips.com using Trip Code: whale2012 (case sensitive). Space is limited!

More Science Trips!

Bermuda Biostation
Costa Rica • Washington, DC
Niagara Falls • Adirondacks

CTA Class Trips

Washington, DC • Boston • Philadelphia
New York City • Gettysburg
Baltimore • Williamsburg

Professionally Designed Educational Tours

800-541-6606
5194 Hamilton Blvd.
Allentown, PA 18106

Email: request@CTAFielddtrips.com
Web: www.CTAFielddtrips.com
Long Island, NY office: 866-541-6606